

176. In the country (Part 1 of 2)

D
Ba, ba ba ba ba, ba ba ba ba, ba ba ba ba (REPEAT)

D Dmaj7 D7 B7
1. When the world in which you're living gets a bit too much to bear
Em Emaj7 Em7 A7
And you need someone to lean on when you look there's no one there

D G D G
You're gonna find me, out in the country

G D G D G
You're gonna find me, way out in the country

D G D G D G D G
Where the air is good and the day is fine and the pretty girl has a hand in mine
D G D Bm Em G A7
And the silver stream is the poor man's wine in the country, in the country

D Dmaj7 D7 B7
2. When you're walking in the city and you're feeling rather small

Em Emaj7 Em7 A7
And the people on the sidewalk seem to form a solid wall

D G D G
You're gonna find me, out in the country

G D G D G
You're gonna find me, yea out in the country

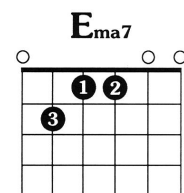

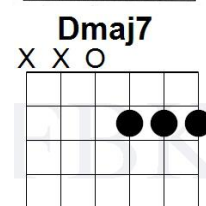

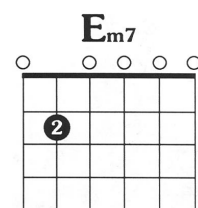

D G D G D G D G
Where the air is good and the day is fine and the pretty girl has a hand in mine
D G D Bm Em G A7
And the silver stream is the poor man's wine in the country, in the country

D F D
Hurry, hurry, hurry, for the time is slipping by

D F A7
You don't need a ticket, it belongs to you and I

D G D G
Come out and join me, hey out in the country

BREAK D/// G/// D/// G/// D/// G/// D/// G///

176. In the country (Part 2 of 2)

D G

D G

D G

D G

Where the air is good and the day is fine and the pretty girl has a hand in mine

D G

D

Bm

Em

G A7

And the silver stream is the poor man's wine in the country, in the country

D

OUTRO Ba, ba ba ba ba, ba ba ba ba, ba ba ba ba (X3)