

263. All around my hat (Part 1 of 2)

ACAPELLO INTRO (STRUM D FOR NOTE)

All around my hat, I will wear the green willow,
And all around my hat, for a twelve-month and a day.
And if anyone should ask me the reason why I'm wearin' it,
It's all for my true love who's far, far, away

A/ D A D A
1. Fare thee well cold winter, and fare thee well cold frost.
D A D E A
Oh nothing have I gained, but my own true love I've lost.
A D G Bm
I sing and I'll be merry, when occasion I do see -
D A D A D
He's a false deluded young man, let him go, fare well he.

D A D A
2. The other night he brought me a fine diamond ring:
D A D E A
But he thought to have deprived me of a far better thing.
A D G Bm
But I being careful, like lovers ought to be,
D A D A D
He's a false deluded young man, let him go fare well he.

D A D A
CHORUS All around my hat, I will wear the green willow,
And all around my hat, for a twelve-month and a day.
A D G Bm (STOP)
And if anyone should ask me the reason why I'm wearin' it,
D A D A D
It's all for my true love who's far, far, away.

3. It's a quarter pound of reason, and a half a pound of sense,

D A D E A
A small sprig of thyme, and as much of prudence,

A D G Bm
You mix them all together and you will plainly see:

D A D A D
He's a false deluded young man, let him go, fare well he.

D A D A
CHORUS All around my hat, I will wear the green willow,

And all around my hat, for a twelve-month and a day.

A D G Bm (STOP)
And if anyone should ask me the reason why I'm wearin' it,

D A D A D
It's all for my true love who's far, far, away.
